

Five reasons members help out during worship:

1. To serve God
2. To meet people
3. To feel connected
4. To give back to the church
5. To have fun!

ACOLYTES

Lead: Beth Rogers

Confirmation and high school students are encouraged to participate in the service as acolytes. Acolytes light candles and assist during the offering and communion at regular and special services.

ASSISTING MINISTERS

Lead: Kim Hohensee

Assist the pastor during prayers, offering and communion.

AUDIO/VISUAL ASSISTANTS

Lead: Doug Lind

Help run video cameras, live stream the worship service, take photos, or put your graphic design skills to work on church advertisements.

COUNTERS

Lead: Randy Mensing

Count the offering each week, help make deposits and post data to our books.

CRUCIFERS

Lead: Beth Rogers

Carry the processional cross, leading the congregation into and out of worship.

GREETERS

Lead: Crystal Mathisen

Greet members and visitors as they arrive for worship. As a greeter, you are often the first person someone sees as they enter the church - first impressions are everything!

LECTORS

Lead: Dawn Ambrosio

Read lessons from the Old and New Testament during the service.

NAVE CLEANING TEAM

Lead: Dianne Ambrosio

A dedicated team comes in every week to remove old bulletins, sharpen pencils, and clean the pew areas in preparation for next Sunday's worship.

PRAYER MINISTERS

Lead: Marie Glover

Be available during communion to offer personal prayers of thanksgiving, celebration, and/or concerns with members of the community.

SACRISTANS

Leads: Cindy Green, Patricia Kennedy

Weekly prepare the altar and communion elements, assuring the space is kept beautiful and in good order. Sacristans also help with special services such as baptisms, weddings, and funerals.

USHERS

Lead: Steve Kultala

Help guide visitors to their seats during the service and help facilitate offering and communion.
